They shall notify the clerk of committees in writing of their action, over their signatures, and said notice shall be the equivalent of a call by the chairman.

Section 4. Any vacancy occurring in any committee shall be filled in the same manner as provided for the creation of the committee.

Section 16. No expenditure shall be made for the celebration of holidays, and for other purposes of a public nature, unless the order authorizing such expenditure shall be adopted by a vote of two-thirds of the members of each branch of the City Council present and voting by yeas and nays.

Section 17. The City Clerk shall be clerk of the City Council in convention.

Section 18. All city officers shall be elected by a viva voce vote in the manner provided by Sec. 3, Chap. 39, of the General Laws, or any acts in amendment thereof.

Section 19. Either board may hold its meeting at such time as it may determine without concurrent action on the part of both boards, but at the request of either board a concurrent meeting may be held at such time as both branches may appoint.

Section 20. When there occurs any difference of opinion as regarding modes of proceeding not otherwise provided for, the City Council shall be governed by parliamentary practice as set forth in Cushing's "Manual of Parliamentary Practice."

Section 21. Reports, orders, ordinances, and resolutions requiring concurrent action must be in possession of the City Clerk on or before two o'clock in the afternoon of the Friday preceding the day of a meeting of either board, or be postponed until the next meeting.

Section 22. The clerk of each board shall prepare for each meeting a calendar of matters in order for consideration, a list of matters lying on the table, and such other matter or memoranda as he may deem necessary, and as either board or its President may direct, and furnish the same to the City Clerk, who shall cause the same to be printed and distributed among the members of the City Council.

Section 23. Every order, resolve or other paper requiring concurrent action offered in either board by a member thereof shall be endorsed by him and if the subject matter is referred to a committee, and if he so requests he shall be notified by the clerk of committees, of the time and place when said subject matter is to be considered.

Section 24. A petition for a change of zone under the Zoning Ordinance received within six months after action of the City Council denying a change affecting the premises involved in such petition shall be placed on file.

A petition for annuity to be paid under Section 89 of Chapter 32 of the General Laws shall be placed on file if it is received within six months after a petition for an annuity to be paid to the same persons has been denied by the City Council or within six months after a board of physicians created under the provisions of said Section 89 of Chapter 32 of the General Laws has refused to issue to the City Treasurer the certificate mentioned in said section.

Section 25. Upon receipt by the City Clerk of a copy either of the Mayor's Inaugural Message or the Mayor's mid-term message, the message shall be so divided by the City Clerk as to make it possible for the City Council to refer the parts of the message to the appropriate committees so that the various recommendations of the Mayor can be considered and acted upon by the said committees.

RULES AND ORDERS OF THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN

Section 1. The order of business shall be as follows:

First. The President shall call the board to order; and if a quorum be present, shall cause the roll to be called and the names of the absentees recorded.

Second. The journal of the previous meeting shall be read.

Third. Petitions, reports and other papers requiring the action of the Common Council shall be called for and be disposed of by reference or otherwise.

Fourth. The orders of the day shall be taken up—meaning by the orders of the day, the business remaining unfinished at the previous meeting, and such communications as may have been subsequently sent up from the Common Council.

Fifth. New business may be introduced by any member of the board.

Sixth. Such nominations, appointments and elections as may be in order, shall be considered and disposed of.

Section 2. Every ordinance shall pass through the following stages before it shall be considered as having received the final action of this board, viz: first reading, second reading, passage to be enrolled, passage to be ordained; and every joint resolution shall have two several readings before the question shall be taken on its final passage.

Section 3. An ordinance may be rejected at any stage in its progress, but may not pass through all its stages in one day except by unanimous consent.

Section 4. Standing committees shall be appointed on assessments for sewers; on enrollment; on bills in the second reading; and on elections and returns.

Section 5. No member shall be interrupted while speaking but by a call to order or for a correction of a mistake, nor shall there be any conversation among the members while a paper is being read, or a question stated from the chair.

Section 7. The foregoing rules and order of business shall be observed in all cases, unless suspended for a specific purpose by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

Section 8. All committees shall be appointed and announced by the President unless the board shall determine otherwise.

A motion to adjourn shall always be first in order and shall be decided without debate; and on the motions to lay on the table, to take from the table, for the previous question, to close debate at a specified time, to postpone to a time certain, to commit or recommit, not exceeding ten minutes shall be allowed for debate, and no member shall speak more than three minutes.

Section 10. A motion to reconsider a vote shall only be in order at the same or the meeting next succeeding that at which the vote was passed. If a motion is made to reconsider a vote at the same meeting at which it is passed, and it is moved to postpone its consideration until the next meeting, such motion to postpone shall require for its adoption the affirmative vote of but one-third of the members voting; and, provided, further, that no action of the council upon a motion to reconsider a vote, upon an incidental or subsidiary question, shall remove the main subject under consideration from before it. When a motion for reconsideration is decided, that decision shall not be reconsidered. The motion to "postpone until the next meeting" the consideration of a motion to reconsider a vote shall not be debatable, and shall not be in order on and after the last Monday in December.

RULES AND ORDERS OF THE COMMON COUNCIL

Rights and Duties of the President

Section 1. The president shall take the chair at the hour appointed for the meeting, call the members to order, and, if a quorum be present, cause the roll to be called and the names of the absentees recorded. He shall then call for the reading of the minutes of the preceding meeting, and proceed to business.

Section 2. He shall preserve order and decorum, may speak to points of order in preference to other members and shall decide all such questions, subject to an appeal to the council by motion regularly seconded; and no other business shall be in order until the question on the appeal shall have been decided. He shall also nominate all committees not elected, unless the council shall determine otherwise.

Section 3. He shall arise to address the council, to state facts or to put a question; but may read sitting.

Section 4. When a question is under debate, the president shall receive no motion but to adjourn, to lay on the table, for the previous question, to postpone to a certain day, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged. He shall declare all votes, but if a vote be doubted he shall order a return of the number voting in the affirmative and in the negative without any further debate.

Section 5. He may call any member to the chair for a period of time not extending beyond an adjournment; and when out of the chair the president may participate in any debate; but shall not resume the chair while the same question is pending; and on going into committee of the whole he shall appoint the chairman.

Section 6. Questions shall be propounded in the order in which they are moved, unless the subsequent motion be previous in its nature; except that in naming sums and fixing times, the largest sum and the longest time shall be first put.

Section 7. After a motion is stated by the president, it shall be disposed of by a vote of the council, unless withdrawn by the mover before an amendment or decision.

Section 8. A motion to adjourn and the motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

Section 9. The previous question shall be put in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present and until it is decided, shall preclude all amendment and debate of the main question, and after the adoption of the previous question, the sense of the council shall forthwith be taken upon amendments reported by a committee, upon all pending amendments and then upon the main question.

Section 10. On all questions and motions whatsoever, the president shall take the sense of the council by yeas and nays provided one-fifth of the members present shall so require.

Section 11. When two or more members rise at the same time, the president shall name the member who is to speak first.

Rights and Duties of Members

Section 12. In case of a vacancy in the office of President the Council shall proceed forthwith to elect a President, the oldest senior member present presiding, and no other business, except a motion to adjourn to a time specified or to take a recess, shall be in order until an election by vote of a majority of those present and voting is effected. In the absence of the president the member present whose election is of the earliest date shall call the council to order, and preside until a president pro tempore shall be chosen; if it shall appear that there are two or more members whose election is of equal early date, seniority in years shall determine who shall call the council to order; and if an election is not effected on the first trial, on the second trial a plurality of votes shall elect. When any member is about to speak in the council, he shall rise in his place and respectfully address the presiding officer, confining himself to the question under debate, and avoiding personalities.

Section 13. No member shall be mentioned in the debate by his name, but may be described by the place he occupies or such other designation as may be intelligible and respectful.

Section 14. No member speaking shall be interrupted by another but by a call to order or to correct a mistake.

Section 15. No member shall speak more than once on a question to the prevention of any other who has not spoken and desires to speak; nor more than twice without the consent of the board; and all questions relating to the priority of business shall be taken without debate.

Section 16. When the president or any other member is speaking, no one shall stand up or pass unnecessarily before the person speaking.

Section 17. Every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the president or any member require it.

Section 18. A motion to reconsider a vote shall only be in order at the same or the meeting next succeeding that at which the vote was passed. If a motion is made to reconsider a vote at the same meeting at which it is passed, and it is moved to postpone its consideration until the next meeting, such motion to postpone shall require for its adoption the affirmative vote of but one-third of the members voting; and, provided further, that no action of the council upon a motion to reconsider a vote, upon an incidental or subsidiary question, shall remove the main subject under consideration from before it. When a motion for reconsideration is decided, that decision shall not be reconsidered. The motion to "postpone until the next meeting" the consideration of a motion to reconsider a vote shall not be debatable, and shall not be in order on and after the last Monday in December.

Section 19. Every member who shall be in the council when a question is put, shall give his vote, unless the council for special reasons excuse him, or unless his private interest is involved therein.

Pairs may be arranged between members and when announced in open session shall be made a matter of record.
