 - b) Other old business
 - i) The Board requested that the City Clerk consider the Syrian & Lebanese American Assn at 108 Plantation St (“The Syrian Club”) as a potential polling place location in the future.
- 6) New Business

The board discussed the steps necessary to comply with Chapter 51: Section 37. Annual register; omitted names; notice.

The Clerk stated that the City is not in compliance with the General Laws. He said that the money for the required mailing was not in the budget and there is not adequate staff to perform the work. The board requested a budget proposal from the Clerk and a plan that would bring the City into compliance for 2009 and also for 2010.

The Board voted to make the budget proposal and compliance plan the first item of business for the August meeting.

- 7) The board voted to adjourn.
