City of Worcester Internal Complaint process design - Activity Update: Mr. George Cortez - Complaint process & Committee Suggestions: Equal Opportunity (official role, policy, plan, and statement)

Mr. Cortez led the discussion of the draft version of the internal complaint process that, if adopted, would apply to municipal employees, former employees, and applicants of the city of Worcester, who believe they have been discriminated against on one or more of the following bases; color, religion, sex, national origin, age (40 or over), physical or mental disability, reprisal for prior equal employment opportunity (EEO), pregnancy, and sexual orientation.

The committee suggested that the complaint process and related equal opportunity policy additionally protect gender identity, political affiliation, and marital status. These categories would be in addition to federally protected class categories.

It was suggested that final draft of the internal complaint process with union leaders as it relates to their established grievance process.

Dr. Carter provided percentages of city employees who are unionized.

Committee discussed the difference between private and confidential. In a confidential would not be shared at all but that private would be shared on need to know basis with other parties in order to resolve the issue. Mr. Patrick hare suggested that the complaint process for city of Worcester employees located on an intranet system as opposed to an Internet system.
The committee determined that the next meeting would be dedicated to a working session, determining the complaint authority and flow.

Human Resources to attend job fairs:
Dr. Carter reported that Human Resources will be attending several job fairs and other opportunities in partnership with the Worcester Police Department. Deadline to apply to become a police officer for the city of Worcester is February 21, 2017. Dr. Carter mentioned that she is visiting various individuals in the community to share flyers in person to bring awareness to this opportunity. Further she mentioned that she would be sending the flyers to the Diversity and Inclusion Advisory committee along with a timeline that helps the committee to understand the steps to becoming a police officer. Dr. Carter also shared that she would send a more complete listing of engagements wherein Human Resources will be present to talk about current City of Worcester positions, and the opportunity to become a City of Worcester Police Officer.

Ms. Nguyen suggested that there be a process for the accused that is embedded within internal complaint process to protect the rights of the accused.

Mr. Hare suggested language about peer and supervisor complaints.
