<td>2. Open Meeting Law brief overview</td>
<td>Pam Callahan from the Human Resources Department provided a brief overview of Open Meeting Law. Conversations about committee work outside of the meeting time are subject to Open Meeting Law (still need public notice, city staff to take minutes, be ADA accessible, etc.). The Committee members cannot exchange emails in which they discuss items or provide an opinion, as emails are not a public forum. If there are changes to the agenda, committee (chair) should announce that to members of the public who attend the meeting as they enter and the staff liaison should amend the agenda and repost through the Clerk’s Office.</td>

3. Brainstorming and Facilitated Planning Session

Pam Callahan provided the committee with a presentation on strategic planning using SMART goals. The committee then brainstormed ideas for the committee’s work. Pam then assisted the committee in grouping the ideas.

Committee discussed that if another group is already doing work, the committee could support the work, rather than taking it on as a priority. Also of note is that this committee is advisory in nature. It can provide policy recommendations to the City Manager, but it must be in line with the CM’s strategic vision.

This is an opportunity to start over. The committee wants to look at the surveys that have been done (CHA, youth surveys, ACSW survey results) so as to hear from the public what their needs are and what they would like to address.

ACSW would like to invite the new Chief Diversity Officer to a future meeting.

Pam will type up the results of the brainstorming and return at a future meeting to go over them and help the group pare them down to actionable items.
